Lunch area

The image shows the interior of a yacht, specifically the galley and cockpit area. The galley features light-colored wood cabinetry, a black countertop, and a stainless steel sink with a chrome faucet. A Miele induction hob is installed on the countertop. To the left, there is a curved wooden bar with a black countertop and a chrome handrail. In the background, the cockpit area is visible, featuring a steering wheel, a digital display, and a compass. Large windows provide a view of the blue sea and sky. The floor is made of polished wood.
